

RESPECTUS OF THE United States Magazine and DEMOCRATIC REVIEW.

On the 1st of July, 1837, will be published at Washington, District of Columbia, and delivered simultaneously, in the principal cities of the United States, a new Monthly Magazine, under the above title, devoted to the principles of the Democratic party.

It has long been apparent to many of the reflecting members of the Democratic party of the United States, that a periodical for the advocacy and diffusion of their political principles, similar to those in active and influential operation in England, is a desideratum, which it was very important to supply—a periodical which should unite with the attractions of a sound and vigorous literature, a political character capable of giving efficient support to the doctrines and measures of the party, now maintained by a large majority of the people. Discussing the great question of policy before the country, expounding and advocating the Democratic doctrine through the most able pens that the party can furnish in articles of greater length, more condensed force, more elaborate research, and more elevated tone than is possible for the newspaper press, a Magazine of this character became an instrument of inappreciable value for the enlightenment and formation of public opinion, and for the support of the principles which it advocates. By these means, by thus explaining and defending the measures of the great Democratic party, and by always furnishing to the public a clear and powerful commentary upon those complex questions of policy and party which so frequently distract the country, and upon which, imperfectly understood as they often are by friends, and misrepresented and distorted as they never fail to be by political opponents, it is of the utmost importance that the public should be fully and rightly informed, it is hoped that the periodical in question may be able to exert a beneficial, rational, and lasting influence on the public mind.

Other considerations, which cannot be too highly appreciated, will render the establishment and success of the proposed Magazine of very great importance.

In the mighty struggle of antagonist principles which is now going on in society, the Democratic Party of the United States stands committed to the World as the depository and exemplar of those cardinal doctrines of political faith with which the cause of the People in every age and country is identified. Chiefly from the want of a convenient means of concentrating the intellectual energies of its disciples, this party has hitherto been almost wholly unrepresented in the republic of letters, while the views and policy of its opposite creeds are daily advocated, by the ablest and most commanding efforts of genius and learning.

In the United States Magazine the attempt will be made to remove this reproach.

The present is the time peculiarly appropriate for the commencement of such an undertaking. The Democratic body of the Union, after a conflict which tested to the uttermost its stability and its principles, have succeeded in retaining possession of the executive administration of the country. In the consequent comparative repose from political strife, the period is auspicious for organizing and calling to its aid a new and powerful ally of this character, interfering with none and co-operating with all.

Co-ordinate with this main design of the United States Magazine, no care nor cost will be spared to render it, in a literary point of view, honorable to the country, and fit to cope in vigor of rivalry with its European competitors. Viewing the English language as the noble heritage and common birthright of all who speak the tongue of Milton and Shakespeare, it will be the uniform object of its conductors to present only the finest productions in the various branches of literature, that can be procured; and to diffuse the benefit of correct models of taste and worthy execution.

In this department the exclusiveness of party, which is inseparable from the political department of such a work, will have no place. Here we all stand on a neutral ground of equality and reciprocity, where those universal principles of taste to which we are all alike subject will alone be recognized as the common law. Our political principles cannot be compromised, but our common literature it will be our common pride to cherish and extend, with a liberality of feeling unbiassed by partial or minor views.

As the United States Magazine is founded on the broadest basis which the means and influence of the Democratic party in the United States can present, it is intended to render it in every respect a thoroughly National Work, not merely designed for ephemeral interest and attraction, but to continue of permanent historical value. With this view a considerable portion of each number will be appropriated to the following subjects, in addition to the general features referred to above.

A general summary of Political and of Domestic Intelligence, digested in the order of the States, comprising all the authentic important facts of the preceding month.

General Literary Intelligence, Domestic and Foreign.

General Scientific Intelligence, including Agricultural Improvements, a notice of all new Patents, &c.

A condensed account of all new works of Internal Improvement throughout the Union, proceeded by a general view of all now in operation or in progress.

Military & Naval News, Promotions, Changes, Movements, &c.

Foreign Intelligence.

Biographical obituary notices of distinguished persons.

After the close of each session of Congress, an extra or an enlarged number will be published, containing a general review and history of its proceedings, a condensed abstract of important official documents, and acts of the session.

Advantage will be taken of the means concentrated in this establishment from all quarters of the Union, to collect and digest such extensive statistical observations on all the most important interests of the country as cannot fail to prove of very great value.

This portion of the work will be separately pagged as to admit of binding by itself, and will be furnished with a copious index, so that the United States Magazine will also constitute a complete Annual Register, on a scale unattempted before, and of very great importance to all classes, not only as affording a current and combined view from month to month, of the subjects which it will comprise, but also for record and reference through future years; the value of which will increase with the duration of the work.

Although in its political character the United States Magazine addresses its claims of support particularly to the democratic party, it is hoped that its other features referred to above—independently of the desirable object of becoming acquainted with the doctrines of an opponent thus advocated—will recommend it to a liberal and candid support from all parties, and from the large class of non-party.

To promote the popular objects in view, and relying upon the united support of the democratic party, as well as from others, the price of subscription is fixed at the low rate of five dollars per annum; while in mechanical arrangements, and in size, quantity of matter, &c., the United States Magazine will be placed on a par at least with the leading monthlies of England. The whole will form three large octavo volumes each year.

The subscription will be in all cases payable in advance, or (for the first year only) six dollars on the delivery of the third number. The absolute necessity of this rule in such an establishment will be obvious to all.

In return for a remittance of $50, eleven copies will be sent—for $100, twenty three copies. The certificate of a postmaster of the remittance of a sum of money will be a sufficient receipt, all dangers of the mail being at the risk of the Publishers.

All communications will be addressed, post paid, to the undersigned, the Publishers.

NOBLE'S AGAMEDIAN
LOZENGE;
A NEVER FAILING CURE FOR Fever & Ague.

And unrivaled as a Tonic in all cases of Debility
Female Obstructions, Fevers, &c.

Owing to the unprincipled venality of a certain set of pretenders to skill, in the art of compounding medicine with reference to the cure of human ills, the country has been deluged with nostrums, to cure this and that disease—some "tonic mixture" and another "panacea," and "catholicon," &c. &c., and, in addition, until it has become necessary for men of science, and those who wish to save the unfortunate from imposition and death, to lend their aid in stopping the ravages of quackery and presumption. Therefore, this Lozenge was invented by an experienced Chemist and Physician in accordance with the immutable principles of physiological science as applicable to the pathology of human disease and expressly to meet the wants of EMIGRANTS and people of all places where the above diseases prevail, and is indisputably the best medicine ever before offered to the public for the cure of those diseases. Having more power than the Quinine, it has none of its danger to the constitution, as it prevents the formation of DISEASE IN THE LIVER, AGUE CAKES, &c. so often the consequence of the injudicious use of QUININE. It will never fail to cure the ague and all diseases of the constitution (dependent upon it), when used according to the directions. There are twenty four Lozenges and six Pills in each box. Price one dollar per box. The cheapest medicine ever before offered in proportion to its virtues. Directions inside of the box.

B. G. NOBLE, General Agent,
Dexter, M. T.

CERTIFICATES.
This may certify, that having been afflicted with Ague and Fever, in a most aggravated form, for more than twelve months, without any intermission, except for a few days, I was at length perfectly cured by the use of one box of Noble's Agamedian Lozenge, after having tried most of the prepared remedies with no effect, such as Quinine, Bark, and various compounds. Such was my situation, previous to using the Lozenge, that I was wholly incapable of doing any kind of labor, and rapidly on the decline. A few days' use of it, however, wrought so great a change, that I was able to commence work, which I have continued without interruption ever since, although many months have elapsed since. I would recommend this medicine to those afflicted with Fever and Ague, as a sure and effectual remedy for that disease. OBEY TAYLOR.

I certify, that I was cured of an inveterate Ague by the use of Noble's Agamedian Lozenge. I would recommend it as a radical and permanent remedy for that disease. N. POWELL.

I can cheerfully testify to the superior efficacy of Noble's Agamedian Lozenge, as a remedy for Fever and Ague, from its use in my own case, having been perfectly cured of Fever and Ague by it, after having made a trial of various other medicines with no effect.

VEGETABLE RHEUMATIC DROPS.

MANY articles are before the public, as a cure for that most obstinate and tormenting disease the Rheumatism, and from close observation, we are led to believe they have at a very great extent, failed to produce that desirable result; and may it not be attributed to the fact that articles said to cure this troublesome disorder, are also recommended to cure almost every disease with which our frail bodies are attacked, and in their preparation that objects kept in view, viz: to have the medicine a cure for all diseases.

The Vegetable Rheumatic Drops are offered to the public as a remedy for Rheumatism; and as no case is known where a period of cure was not effected, we are justified in declaring it a valuable medicine for that painful disease, and for no other it is recommended.—Price 50 Cents.

CERTIFICATES.
Messrs. O. & S. Crosby & Co. Gentlemen, I feel happy in having it in my power to state to you the good effect of your Vegetable Rheumatic Drops, or sure remedy, had in restoring me from a sick bed. In the month of April last, I was so afflicted with the Inflammatory Rheumatism that I was confined to my bed. I was entirely unable to help myself. I could not so much as turn myself in bed, and it was with the greatest difficulty that I could be moved into I tried various kinds of medicine, and was attended by a skillful physician, but all to no effect, until I made use of your Sure Remedy, which when applied as directed, gave me immediate relief. Within a short time after I commenced using it, I was able to rise out and attend my usual business. I can cheerfully recommend it to the public as being a good medicine for Rheumatic complaints, as it has been a number of months and I have had no return.

AARON HOLDRIDGE,
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 1st, 1835.

Messrs Crosby & Co. I was afflicted for several months with the Rheumatism and having used every remedy recommended by the most eminent physicians within my reach without success, I at length procured a bottle of your Rheumatic Drops or Sure Remedy, and made the application as directed, and before I had used one half of it, a perfect cure was effected; and to my knowledge the same bottle cured two of my neighbors. It is now about two years since I used your medicine, and I have not been troubled with the Rheumatism since.

DR. JUDKIN'S
SPECIFIC OINTMENT

THIS valuable medicine is celebrated for curing White Swellings of every description, Sore Legs and Ulcers of long standing. Glandular Tumors, Felons, or what some people know by the name of Catarrhs; Rheumatic pains, and Bruises; Tetters of all kinds; Chilblains, or parts affected by frost; it is also one of the best remedies for Scalds and Burns.

For glandular swellings, it is superior to any medicine yet known. It is much safer than mercurial applications, (as it does not contain the smallest atom of that mineral) because it does not lay the patient liable to injury from exposure to cold.

It cures the worst felons or whitlows on an application of forty-eight hours.

Rheumatism which have stood so long as to become a systematic disorder, required medicine to be taken inwardly to remove them entirely. But in most cases by applying this ointment externally, as directed, it will give relief.

CERTIFICATES.
Washington, March 22, 1836.

Sir—My son being afflicted for five years with White Swelling, and having applied every remedy recommended by the most eminent physicians within my reach, without success, I at length procured one jug of Dr. Judkin's Patent Specific Ointment, and state for the benefit of the afflicted, that before one jug was used a perfect cure was effected. My son has enjoyed good health ever since. I have no doubt the Ointment alone has indebted, as nothing else was used for more than nine months before the application of the Ointment.

Respectfully,
JOHN COCKE.

I have made use of Dr. Judkin's Ointment, and it has proved a most valuable medicine to my son, who for many years has been afflicted with chills and blains, and was obliged to wear Indian-Rubber shoes. till I made use of the Ointment, which effected an entire cure, it is also the best remedy for sores and wounds, have ever used in my family.

T. WHITE'S
TOOTH-ACHE DROPS.

THE only Specific ever yet offered to the Public, from which a radical and permanent cure may be obtained, of that disagreeable pain, the tooth-ache, with all its attendant evils: such as fracturing jaws in extracting of the teeth, which often prove more painful than the tooth-ache itself; and cold passing from the decaying teeth to the jaw, thence to the head, producing a rheumatic affection, with many other unpleasant effects, such as swelling of the face, and taste in the mouth, &c. &c. all of which are occasioned from foul or decaying teeth. I am happy in having it in my power to offer to the world a remedy that will not only remove the pain, but preserve the teeth from further decay, and detach the carious matter from such as have not commenced aching, and remove the tartar and all other filth from the teeth, restoring them to health and usefulness.

CERTIFICATES.
Mr. Thomas White—I have the pleasure to inform you, that I have been using your Tooth-ache Drops in my practice for some time past, and I must acknowledge that I find them far superior to any thing I have ever yet known for that purpose.

I am well convinced that it will cure most cases of Tooth-ache, when it is timely and properly applied; and from a few weeks' experience, I am decidedly of the opinion that it will have a very beneficial effect in preserving the teeth; and recommend it, hoping it may prove a blessing to humanity, and advantageous to yourself.
